

Wragge Lawrence and Graham & Co agree to provide Legal Advice to the Lapal Canal Trust.

The Lapal Canal Trust (LCT) is pleased to announce that it has secured the services of Wragge Lawrence Graham & Co as its legal advisor. Headquartered in Birmingham, Wragge Lawrence Graham & Co is an international law firm providing a full service to clients from 10 offices worldwide.

Dr Peter Best, Chairman of the Lapal Canal Trust, comments. "We are delighted to be linked to Birmingham's premier legal company. As we move forward in restoring the Lapal Canal we are required to understand and sign complex legal arrangements and agreements and we need the best advice to ensure that the agreements are helpful to our restoration objectives."

Quentin Smye

Quentin Smye, a Director of Wragge Lawrence Graham & Co, has kindly volunteered to help the Trust and will provide an agreed level of advice each year free of charge. Quentin lives in Selly Oak and is a regular user of the canal. He cycles to work along the Worcester to Birmingham Canal tow path and passes the junction with the Lapal Canal in Selly Oak.

Quentin is a real estate development specialist and his skills are helping clients reach their objectives to the end point that effectively and efficiently by appreciating of the concerns of all involved.

Quentin is also a member of the award-winning Wragge Lawrence Graham & Co choir, a passion he shares with LCT Chairman Peter Best who sings with several local operatic societies.

Wragge Lawrence Graham & Co announced that in January 2016 it will combine with leading Canadian law firm Gowlings, to create Gowing WLG.
